

ROADWAYS NEWSFLASH

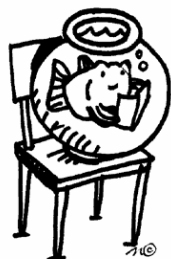

Adult Learners' Week!

*from April 2nd
To April 8th*

Learning takes you to new heights!

We are celebrating Adult Learners' Week by having a "Make your own Stationery" Workshop. Come and learn how to make dried-flower & computer-made greeting cards, and hand-decorated wrapping paper on Wednesday, April 13th 1-3 pm. Please call and let us know if you are attending so we can have enough supplies on hand.

"I became a literacy volunteer because I wanted to give to others the gift that had been given to me—the lifelong pleasure of reading."

Thank you to all our volunteers!

Volunteer Week April 17-24th

Reminder!

The deadline for entries for the Family Literacy Day Challenge has been extended to April 7th, due to Easter break.

~Attention Tutors~ Computer Training

Tutors—there will be a computer workshop that will provide training to tutors and teachers on "How to develop your own interactive educational materials". If you are interested in taking part call the office. The workshop will take place April 29th at an undetermined location (call the office for details).
